

21 MAY 1972

*Scorpio FileP-Winner MichaelSELECTED SHORTS

Cliff Gorman, who has his problems with the law in Broadway's "Lenny," will play a policeman in Aram Avakian's thriller, "Cops and Robbers." . . . Geraldine Page and Barry Nelson, acting a married couple, join Walter Matthau and Carol Burnett in Martin Ritt's "Pete and Tillie." . . . Jack Nicholson will play a salty sailor in "The Last Detail." . . . Jack Palance has been added to the cast of Stanley Kramer's "Oklahoma Crude," which already includes George C. Scott, Faye Dunaway and John Mills. . . . Burt Lancaster will be an American spy, Alain Delon a French spy, and Paul Scofield a Soviet spy in Michael Winner's "Scorpio." . . . Ayn Rand's "Atlas Shrugged" will be filmed by producer Al Ruddy. ✓